November recap

Another busy and fun month at Bates. We started our creative show and tell. After we clean up from open choice time, whoever would like to share something they created stands up and talks about their art, or building they created. Then we ask questions and applaud whoever shared. Our Wednesday clubs have been just awesome. Cheryl's art club made tornado jars, clay bowls and beaded snowflakes. Michelle's sciences club made textured paintings with oil pastels, watercolor paint, salt and glue, rainbow jars, and tried new slime recipes. John crossfit club has been exercising in the gym with music. Hayley started a theatre club and children made puppets for a story they came up with. After clubs we regroup in the cafeteria and have story time, a teacher reads two stories to the group before snack.

Coming up in December

Friday the 7th is our annual pajama party at Upham. If you want to have your child attend you must sign up. Your ticket in is a gift card, all gift cards are donated to the Jimmy fund. It starts at 630 and ends at 10PM. Pizza is provided for dinner. There will be two movie options for your kids to choose from. You get the night to go out to dinner, get some shopping done, or whatever you want! This is a great event that helps a lot of families who need some support.
